The prices listed on this form are general prices and we expressly reserve the right to adjust prices as the facts and circumstances may dictate. For instance, a Schedule C with only 2 entries would have the price potentially adjusted downward, while the same form with numerous computations would have the cost adjusted upward. Please discuss these fees with us prior to having the return prepared if you have any questions or concerns.

If you have any questions, please contact us at 720-922-1120.

Sincerely,
